Six Take Examination.

A civil service examination was held here Saturday by Postmaster J. T. Stephens for the benefit of applicants for the position of rural mail carrier on route No. 6, running out of Hickman to the bottom, which is to be established June 1st.

The examination was held at the postoffice, with the following tussling with the questions propounded by Uncle Sam:

George Rogers.
J. E. Brewer.
Millard Shaw.
H. Whipple.
W. J. (Cap) Barry.

All are good fellows, and we wish there was a new route for each one of them; however, the man who made the best grade will get the place.

The statesman does the speaking.
The editor booms the town.
The lover does the popping—The daisies turn him down.

The poet does the dreaming.
The farmer clears the woods.
The eagle does the screaming—But the stork delivers the goods.

Paid Out $2,000.

Cashier Head of the Hickman Bank & Trust Co. cashed thirty C. M. & G. R. R. Co. checks Saturday for workmen on the new railroad, which aggregated something over $2,000, and a large per cent of the amount finally lodged in the tills of our various stores. This just goes to show what a new road or any other concern contributes to local business. It all helps.

Dizziness, vertigo, (blind staggers), yellow complexion, flatulence are symptoms of a torpid liver. No one can feel well while the liver is inactive. HERBINE is a powerful liver stimulant. A dose or two will cause all bilious symptoms to disappear. Try it. Price 50c. Sold by Hickman Drug Co.

H. M. I. Here.

The Hall Moody Institute, at Martin, Tenn., gave their students an excursion Monday. They came to Hickman in four extra coaches on the N. C. & St. L., where the Str. H. Dunbar of Paducah awaited them and carried them on a river excursion lasting most of the day. There were about 245 students, and judging from the looks of the lunch boxes, there must have been a ton of fried chicken along. F. E. Case was the only Hickmanite who accompanied the excursionists on their river trip.

Notice.

By virtue of an order of sale this day made in Hickman Police Court, I will offer for sale at the City Pound, between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock, p. m., Monday, May, 29, 1911 to the highest bidder, one maily dog with no brands or marks, which has been found guilty of running at large on the streets of the City of Hickman. Said sale will be made for cash. This May 22, 1911.

Chalked Up 7 to 0.

Probably one of the fastest amateur games ever played on the local diamond, was that played Friday, when Hickman chalked up 9 goose eggs as Cayce's end of a 7 to 0 score.

The game was a pitcher's battle between "Cherry Red," for Hickman, and White, for Cayce. "Cherry" struck out 10 and White 9, Cherry did not issue a single free pass and White only one. In the hit department Cherry came off better, allowing only three hits, while Hickman bats found White safely 7 times.

Hickman: Hill, Owens, Oliver, Caldwell, Wright Bivens, Naylor, Rice and Cherry.

Cayce: R. Johnson, Brown, E. Hammonds, Stevenson, Forest, H. Johnson and Edmiston.

C. M. & G. Excursion.

The C. M. & G. R. R. Co. ran their first passenger train into Hickman Sunday morning. It was an excursion from Dyersburg, Tenn., and came in practically unannounced.

There were 5 coaches packed to the guards, aggregating 550 people. At Tiptonville more than 150 people were unable to get on the train, and passengers at small stations this side were turned away.

The hotel proprietors, not knowing the crowd was coming, was simply puzzled. When they were a good-natured, orderly crowd, and spent the day seeing the sights of Hickman. Next time an excursion is run into Hickman, we trust it will be duly announced in order that we may be able to take care of our visitors and provide some entertainment.

This is Locust Year.

Judging from the number locusts that are swarming in this section, it must be locust year. These strange insects have a way of visiting us every seven years. There is an old legend that the locusts' wings are prophetic—predicting either war or peace before their return again. On the tip of the wing will always be found the letter "P" or "W." The former indicates peace, the latter war. This year the locusts' wings show a very plain "W."

WARNING!

Parties having wiring done, or making any changes in their wiring, must have a permit from this company, in order that our records will show the consumption.

The reason for this is obvious, as we have transformers that reduce the current, and to overload one of these will mean a burn-out, entailing a considerable loss to this company.

Any electrician tapping our lines or making a change, without a permit, will be immediately prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

For Murder at Lake.

(On Free Trial, Delivered Free)

Smith and Pete Brannon, brothers and fishermen at Reelfoot Lake, will serve sentences of fifteen and five years respectively, in the State penitentiary for the murder of Joe Phillips, a young fisherman of 18 years, whom they killed at Beaver Lake in Obion county last year, as the result of an affirmation of their sentences in a decision delivered by Justice D. L. Larsen, of the State Supreme Court.

Beaver Lake is an arm of Reelfoot, situated between Lake and Obion counties. The tragedy took place on the bank of the lake on the Obion side. On the day of the shooting the two Brannon brothers were at the home of a friend several hundred yards from their own cabin, which stood close to the bank of the lake, where they had been invited to dinner. Just as they were sitting down to the table a son of their host ran in and informed the Brannons that their cabin was being robbed. The brothers ran hurriedly out in time to see Joe Phillips, Raymond Burkhold and Joe Grey, three young fishermen, run rapidly from their cabin to a skiff moored at the bank of the lake.

When the Brannon's reached the place where the robbers had embarked they had rowed out into the lake beyond the reach of a gunshot, but at Smith Brannon's command they turned their boat about and rowed back to the bank. When the boat was within a few feet of the bank Joe Phillips was shot, and the wound proved fatal a few minutes later—Union City Commercial.

Leather Trust Causes All Your Shoe Troubles

Profits—profits—profits are the one aim of the Leather Trust. It controls the tanneries. It works hand in glove with the Hide Trust. It runs up the price of leather—it cheapens the quality. You see now why the average shoe costs you so much—and why its quality is so bad.

Endicott, Johnson & Co. are the only shoe manufacturers of this country who are independent of the Leather Trust, the Hide Trust and all Middlemen.

They buy their hides in the open markets of the world. They own their tanneries—they tan every pound of leather they put into their shoes. They sell direct from the factory to your home shoe dealer.

Endicott-Johnson shoes are firm and solid—but pliable and comfortable to the feet. They have style—and they hold their style, because the good leather has back-bone to withstand wear and weather.

They come to you 50 cents to $1.00 cheaper than any other shoes of the same general appearance—they pay no profits to Trusts or Middlemen. Ask your local Endicott-Johnson dealer for ENDWELL (Goodyear Welt) shoes—dress and business shoes, selling at $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

ENDWELL shoes give you your choice of two hundred styles in Shoes and Oxfords, lace and button—all the modish lasts—every width and shape of toe—all colors of leather.

Look for this name stamped in every shoe—

LEVY BARRED FROM CLUB

Metropolitan Association of Washington, D. C., Consigns One More Congressman to Outside.

Washington, May 23.—Jefferson M.
Levy, the new representative in congress from the Thirteenth district, New York City, has failed of admission to the Metropolitan club here, thereby sharing the fate of Congressman Martin W. Littleton, also of New York, and making the second New York congressman barred from the organization since the extra session began.

The reason for the rejection of Levy's name is that he is a Jew. The same minority members of the governing body objected to his election who several weeks ago objected to Littleton because he was a "self-made man." Levy's forbears rendered distinguished service to the United States.

few days he will introduce a bill proto erect a presidential summer home

THE BRIDE'S KITCHEN

MOST IMPORTANT ROOM IN THE NEW HOME.

To the Bride Whose Income is Limited the Furnishing of Kitchen and Pantry Seems Serious Task—Some Tips.

The girl who has felt entirely at home in her mother's kitchen, where she has learned to cook, will have a sensation of strangeness or of newness in her own kitchen. It is one thing to make cake, candy, jellies, custards and creams in a place with which one has been acquainted through years of childhood and girlhood—when another housewife has purchased the necessary utensils and planned all the conveniences—and quite another thing to stand in an empty kitchen which must be furnished by one's self, and for which one must "think out" all the requisites. To the bride whose income is large the task of furnishing the kitchen and the kitchen pantry is one that requires much thought. To the bride whose income is limited it seems a serious task, and one upon which she should not "enter unadvisedly or lightly." Poor little woman! In her new life and new home there are many times in which these words of the marriage service come back to her with a force that is almost terrifying.

Before buying anything for the kitchen decide on the furniture to be put in this important room—the most important, by the way, in the new home. If your purse will allow, cover the floor with a good quality of linoleum. If linoleum is quite beyond your means, have your floor painted a light yellow. For the sake of the paint, and still more for the sake of your feet, have several squares of carpet or rugs laid on the floor. One of these must be in front of the table at which you stand to do your mixing, another in front of the sink. Standing on a hard floor is very tiring to the feet and back.

You must, of course, have a deal table in your kitchen, with a drawer that is wide enough and deep enough to hold kitchen spoons, forks and knives. Have by it a strong wooden chair, into which you will drop, I hope, when beating eggs, mixing cake, etc.
Use this often and you will save your strength. A good rule laid down by a wise physician was, "Do no work standing that you can perform as well sitting." If more women followed this rule we would hear less of backaches and surgical operations.

Short muslin curtains may hang across the lower half of your kitchen windows. Have them so plain that they can be washed often without trouble.

It is well to have strips of wood, supplied with screwhooks, above sink and table. On the one over the sink hang mops, dishpan, cloths and towels; on the hooks above the table go mixing spoons of various sizes, strainers, etc. Have no more than two dish towels on the sinkhooks, in case they are needed for immediate use. On a rack placed elsewhere in the kitchen must be enough dish towels to keep one always supplied with the clean article.

Have the kitchen crockery of plain white stoneware that can be easily replaced. Or, if you prefer decorated china, choose a simple blue-and-white pattern.

As to the cooking utensils, avoid elaborate articles or so-called laborsavers until you are sure that they are what they purport to be. Some of them are so complicated that they add to instead of lessening your work.

Get, at first, the bare necessities, such as a kettle, roasting pan, broiler, double boiler, frying pan, strainer and mixing bowl (your experience will tell you what the actual necessities are), and, as you can do so, add to your stock until you have a well-furnished kitchen. To have the proper utensils, and to understand thoroughly the use of each, is the secret of good cooking.

Renovating Carpets.

They must have been well beaten and freed from dust first. Then put a gallon of water into a saucepan with a half pound of good soap, shredded, and boil. When the soap is dissolved pour the whole into a clean pail and stir in a quarter pound of the tartar. Wash a small portion of the carpet with this solution and immediately after with warm, clean water, and rub dry with a clean cloth. Repeat this until the whole surface of the carpet is cleaned.

Danish Pudding.

Put half a cupful of tapioca into a saucepan with three cupfuls of water, cook until transparent. Then add half a cupful of sugar, one cupful of currant jelly, a quarter teaspoonful of salt and one tablespoonful of lemon juice. Pour into a wet mold and chill.
Turn out and serve with whipped cream.

Accident at Start of Aerial Race to —Premier Monie Dangerously Hurt.

Paris, May 23.—Premier Antoine Monie, dangerously injured in an aero-plane accident as Issy les Moulinaux, at the start of the Paris-to-Madrid race, which cost the life of Minister of War Henri Maurice Bertheaux, is improved. The physicians now say that, barring unforeseen developments, the premier will recover.
Monie passed a good night, and was virtually free of fever, an encouraging sign. His injuries consist of a compound fracture of the right leg, a broken nose, a severe scalp wound, abdominal bruises and lacerations.
It will be weeks before the premier will be able to resume his official duties, and there is a strong belief that he will resign and that former Premier Clemenceau will succeed him.

MONUMENT IS DEDICATED

Impressive Ceremonies on Forty-Eighth Anniversary of General Grant's Vicksburg Attack.

Vicksburg, Miss., May 23.—The imposing monument erected by the state of Wisconsin in the Vicksburg National Military park was dedicated with impressive ceremonies on the forty-eighth anniversary of General Grant's famous attack on Vicksburg, in which the Wisconsin troops had a prominent part.

Gov. P. E. McGovern of Wisconsin, accompanied by his staff and a large party of Civil war veterans, came on a special train to participate in the exercises. Capt. G. W. Bird of the monument commission made the presentation address, and Governor Mc-Govern, in behalf of the people of Wisconsin, accepted the monument, which was turned over to Gen. Frederick D. Grant, who received it for the federal government.

The program included an oration by Dr. Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago, a member of the Wisconsin battery at the siege of Vicksburg. Other participants were official representatives of the state of Mississippi and numerous Confederate veterans, who were enroute home from the recent encampment.

Courier's Home Circle

Nothing can ever rob soldiers of the honor of having been soldiers in one of the most tremendous wars of all history, a war with Grant and Sherman and Hancock and Sheridan and Farragut on one side and Lee and Stonewall Jackson and Longstreet and Johnston on the other. As in Greek assemblages, when speakers would rouse the audience, they shouted "Marathon!" so if we wanted to stir you to acclamation we would only need to speak the words "Lookout Mountain," "Chancellorsville," "Gettysburg." And though through the passage of years you are forever free from duty of enlistment, if European nations should too easily and too quickly forget the Monroe doctrine and set aggressive foot upon this continent we think your ankles would be supple again, and your arms would grow strong again, and your eye would be keen enough to follow the stars of the old flag, wherever it might lead.

They Are Brothers Now.

Although the horrors of war are the more conspicuous where the conflict is between brothers and the struggle is a long and desperate one the evidences are numerous that underneath the passion and bitterness of our civil war, there were counter currents of kindly feeling, a spirit of genuine friendliness pervading the opposing camps. This friendliness was something deeper than the expression of mere human instinct; the combatants felt that they were indeed brothers. Acts of kindness to wounded enemies began to be noted at Bull Run, while in every campaign useless picket firing was almost uniformly discontinued and the men shook hands at the outposts and talked cordially of their private affairs and their trials and hardships in the army. This feeling, confined perhaps to men on the very front line culminated at Appomattox, where the victor shared rations with their late antagonists and generously offered them help in repairing the wastes of battle. When the Union veteran returned to the north he did not disguise his faith in the good intentions of the Southern fighting man.

The spirit that moved Lincoln to say in his last inaugural, "With malice toward none" has continued its holy influence. That which must appear to the world at large a startling anomaly, is in truth the simple principle of good-will, unfolding itself under favorable conditions. The war, that is, the actual encounter on the field, taught the participants the dignity of American character.

Scatter the Flowers.

Decoration Day! The inspiration of the occasion is the inspiration of flowers and peace and beauty. At a time when the glory of the land is most dominant, clad in verdure and decorated with blooming roses, every flag that flutters above a ballowed grave mingles its colors with those of buds and blossoms and is a monument of God's past goodness and a prophecy of His continued mercy.

"Scatter the flowers O why should we Cherish the date of the years gone by!
Over the grave of their enemy Scatter the flowers.
Scatter the flowers, my child, today;
Scatter the flowers where the soldiers lie; Scatter the flowers on blue and gray;
Scatter the flowers."

"Decoration day races," "Decoration day dances" are announcements appearing in some papers. As the day approaches for the revival of sacred memories and paying of tribute to the heroism of comrades dead, such notices are not hailed with a feeling of satisfaction by old soldiers. The purposes for which the day was set apart are too sacred for approval of making the day one of jollification and hilarity. The true patriotic heart and mind never contemplated such conditions when an annual memorial service was first conceived.

I wish I could induce you just to TRY a Kin-hee Coffa Pot ONCE. It makes the finest of coffee in LESS THAN TWO MINUTES TIME, and it takes LESS COFFEE than any other way. A heaping teaspoonful makes a cup of coffee. How much do you use your way? You can send it back after trying it if you don't like it.

You see with a Kin Hee Pot you use only PULVERIZED COFFEE for you can't get the full strength out of coffee not pulverized finally. That is why the Kin Hee way is so much more economical than any other way.

And you'll like the flavor of BOCA COFFEE. Lots of housekeepers in Hickman use it and will have no other. Only 30 cents the pound.

Then, too, we have Mrs. Rorer's Coffa at 30 cents also. The guaranteed brand at 30 cents in pound cans and the fruit jar coffa put up in Mason Fruit Jars at 25 cents a pound net weight. You get a Mason Fruit Jar with each one and two pounds you buy.

love strengthened by her courage, guided by her discretion.

The place to take the true measure of a man is not the market place or the arena corner, not the forum or the field, but at his own fireside. There he lays aside his mask and you may learn whether he's imp or angel, king or cur, hero or humbug. I care not what the world says of him—whether it crown him with jewels or pelt him with bad eggs, I care never a copper what his reputation may be. If his babies dread his coming home and wife swallows her heart every time she asks him for a five dollar bill, he's a fraud of the first water, even though he prays night and morn till he is black in the face and howls hallelujah till he shakes the eternal hills.

Avoid unkind criticism. If a life be pure, let all oddities alone. If you are convinced that a not over-brilliant young man is trying to live a clean life and make an honest record in the world, don't pick him to pieces in your after-party talks, even if he is a little bit of a bore or a trifle close or rather prosy. A pure man is better than a brilliant man any day, and truth and honor make a better crowd than cleverness and wit. Set your aim in this world toward the making of happy hearts and homes, as the woman spoken of in the play of "Clito," who "made the grass a little greener for her foot passing over it." Strive not so much to be admired as to be loved, and seek to awaken that love in the "little ones," whom the Master especially commended to our care.

ANOTHER FATAL SHOOTING AT MADRID BEND

Ed Dyer Victim of Three Cornered Pistol and Shotgun Duel.
Ben Whitson and Tal Woods in Hickman Jail. Trouble Starts over Practically Nothing. Dyer Makes Sworn When Told that he Could Not Recover.

Another tragedy took place in the lower end of the county, at Madrid Bend, Sunday evening, when Ben Whitson shot and mortally wounded Ed Dyer. The trouble started over practically nothing, but had the usual setting of cards, whisky and pistols.

Dyer's death wounds came from a shotgun, and his chest and back were literally riddled by shot. He leaves a wife and child, and had been in this county about six months, coming here from Redland, Cal. He was about 30 years old.

Whitson, a resident of the lower end of the county, is also married. Sheriff Johnson and Deputy Rob Goulder arrived on the scene Monday morning at 2 o'clock and arrested Whitson and a man named Northern, and both are in jail awaiting a preliminary hearing which will be given them today, before County Judge W. A. Naylor. Another man, Tall Woods was also mixed up in the trouble, but made his escape and was last heard of at Tiptonville. During the fight, Woods was shot in the hand and carries a painful wound.

The story of the trouble and killing is best told in the dying statement of Dyer, which we print below:

Dyer's Dying Statement.

Ed Dyer, being conscious and being advised by Dr. John Q. Adams that he was mortally wounded and had no chance to recover, gives his last and dying statement, as follows:

"Ben Whitson, Tall Woods and Wesa Northern came to my house about noon hour, May 21st. I was slightly acquainted with all three of them. All three were drinking. They came in and sat down and started a game of cards, asking me if I objected. I said no. My cook got dinner and I asked them all three to dinner, and in the meantime something was said about going in next house which joined ours. I asked the boys, as friends, not to molest those parties, as they were strangers or new-comers in the community, both-ering no one and I did not want them bothered, and I was preparing to go on the slough fishing at that time and they all agreed to go fishing with me. I made preparations for net, hitched the mules to the wagon and drove in front of the house where the boys were still playing a game of cards. I said, 'Boys, I am ready to go fishing.' They said, 'We do not believe we are going, we are going in next door.' I said, 'I believe you word. You will either go fishing with me or leave my house, as I do not want you all to start any trouble.' And Wesa Northern made an attempt to draw a pistol, and I took it away from him, took the shells, out, threw it to him and told them to leave, as I did not want any trouble. They got together to get out in the road. They went off cursing me and the women. I returned and got my pistol for protection. Ben Whitson began backing off as he seemed to want to have a shooting scrape with me. I advanced on him. Tall Woods and Northern turned north on the river. Whitson turned south towards Mr. Ward's store, where I was going to stop. When he saw me turn towards the store, he began cursing me, but I passed on without saying anything back, went on in the store and talked with some of my neighbors and told them of the trouble I had with them. I bought what few things I had to have, walked to the wagon hitched in front of the store. As I did so, Tall Woods and this fellow Northern was approaching near where I was, and I saw he had his hand on his pocket, acting as if he had a gun and was going to use it. I walked towards him telling him if he wanted to use his gun, as it, and not be slipping up on me. When I got home the parties who were making preparations with Mr. Flint Clark to go back to the hills to get some household goods which they had left and bring down here were there. Being prepared to go fishing, this party, whose name is Frank Gant, wanted to go fishing with us, if Mr. Clark was not ready for him to go to the hills. So we got in the wagon and drove down to Mr. Clark's to see if he was ready for Mr. Gant to go to the hills. On the way down, we overtook Mr. S. Q. McCreery and Uncle Dock Adams. They had seen from the actions there had been some trouble, and I was telling them the best I could what it was while on my way to see Mr. Clark. I had to pass Mr. Whitson's house. He came out, threw up his hands and stopped the wagon and asked me what I was abusing his men in any such way for. I proceeded to tell him of their conduct at my place, and his son, Ben Whitson, who was standing near, said I was a d— lying s— of a b—. Ben, while saying this, came towards the gate with pistol in his hand ready for use. I prepared myself, thinking they were going to try to abuse me. Got out of the wagon and walked towards the gate. Mr. Whitson ran up and caught me from behind around the waist, then we fell. I broke his hold and some one asked me not to hit the old man. I said 'I won't'. About that time Ben Whitson opened fire on me from the yard and shot me in the chest. He retreated, firing, and I also returned the fire after I was shot again. Ben Whitson, retreated, got his shotgun and returned again. I done the best I could to protect myself, shot five times, all there was in the gun. When Whitson was shooting at me with a shotgun—I think a pump gun—from around the north corner of the house. I got in the wagon, got Mr. McCreery and Uncle Dock to bring me down to Flint's. Mr. McCreery and Uncle Dock walked behind the wagon.—Signed ED DYER, with Flint L. Clark and Goulder Johnson as witnesses, and sworn to before Esq. S. Q. McCreery.

This is the Dyer side of the story as given to Sheriff Johnson. The Courier has not learned Mr. Whitson's version, but it will be brought out in the trial today. The whole affair is deeply regretted by friends of both parties.

Sentenced to Hang.

John R. Alexander, 55 years old, his son, Emmet Alexander, 25, and his brother, Ed Alexander, 45, were convicted Thursday in Obion Circuit Court of the murder of Walter Simmons. The jury's verdict was murder in the first degree with mitigating circumstances.

This was the second time the Alexanders were tried for the alleged crime, the first trial resulting in a hung jury.

Scenes never before witnessed in Obion county court house were enacted, Thursday, when the families of the defendants with their wives and little children arrived and learned the verdict. The weeping of the children, women and old men softened the hearts of the spectators and brought many to tears.

The killing occurred at Limb, in Obion county, August, 1910. The beginning of the trouble was a craps game in which some one of the Alexanders lost $50. Defendants actually riddled Simmons with pocket knives, two holding him on his horse while the other man cut him to pieces. He fell off the horse dead.

The two boys have been sentenced to death, but the old man will get a new trial.

WHAT I WENT THROUGH

Before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Natick, Mass.—"I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it had worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. NATHAN B. GREATON, 51 N. Main Street, Natick, Mass.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

The Old Cabinet Maker says:

There was a time when we used to put things in the cellar or the well to keep them cool, but nowadays we have miniature ice houses, where we may store the eatables during the hot weather, from day to day. For one reason alone you can't afford to buy a poor one, for you pay the difference in price in the ice you have to buy. When you get one from us, right here at home, people you know, you are bound to get the right kind. First, we don't handle any other kind, and even if we wanted to we couldn't afford to for just figure how much it would hurt us if we sold you an ice burner for a refrigerator. If you have one now that is using too much ice, what you save in a single season on the ice bill will buy you a good one.

Who'll Take 'er?

Fine Bottom Farm of 156 Acres Well Improved, Already Stocked For Only $35 an Acre....

Owner has other business opportunities and will sell this place at much less than it is worth. It can be had with buildings, stock, farming implements and poultry already on it.

Two residences on place, in only moderate repair, but two good barns, one 36 and the other 32 feet, with sheds on sides. Nice young bearing orchard, 50 bushels apples, plenty of plums, etc. 100 acres of the place in cultivation; produces 60 bushels corn, a bale of cotton per acre, also alfalfa, oats, wheat, potatoes and all other crops of this section. A fine stock farm, now stocked with registered hogs of three kinds, live stock and about 200 chickens, guineas, etc., which may be bought with place. All under good American wire fence, but outside is a range of 5,000 acres for stock. Three good wells and pumps on farm.

Land is next to river, but is being added to yearly by river deposits. No better soil under the sun. Place will stand any kind of investigation you may care to make.

This is an extremely low price, as low as any unimproved land, but absolutely nothing wrong with the farm or its title. Makes a good crop every year. If you want either a Fulton county farm or a good investment, it will pay you to buy this place.

BY PASTOR RUSSELL
SUBJECT

HUMAN IMMORTALITY DIVINE IMMORTALITY

The Difference Between These
In the Bible.

The One Only a Provisional Gift, the Other an Inherent Quality.

Lynchburg, Virginia, May 14.—
Pastor Russell, of Brooklyn Tabernacle, N. Y., preached twice here today to attentive audiences. We report one of the discourses, which was preached from the words of the Apostle, "Christ brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel."

The speaker said—We have a number of times mentioned the glorious exaltation purposed of God for the New Creation. St. Peter tells us that these will attain the divine nature, and this attainment will be through, or by means of, the power of God working in the heart as the result of faith in "the exceeding great and precious promises" (1 Peter 1, 4).

Seeking For Immortality.
The Apostle writes concerning the Church, the elect "little flock" of called, chosen and faithful ones. He tells us that by perseverance in well doing we are to attain glory, honor and immortality; and that this reward, to the faithful, will come in the First Resurrection, when mortality shall be clothed upon with immortality; when the new body, glorious and of the divine nature, will be granted to each of the faithful, as instead of the fleshly and imperfect bodies of the present trial time (Romans 8, 10; 1 Corinthians xv, 54).

The immortality for which the Apostle desires the Church is to seek in a different kind entirely from that which the world may expect. It is a different kind even from that which the angels possess. It is the immortality which is a feature or quality of the divine nature. This immortality, the Scriptures assure us, was originally possessed by the Heavenly Father alone.

We read, "The Father alone hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach. Whom no man hath seen nor can see." The only begotten of the Father, the Logos, when made flesh, revealed the Father to mankind (John 1, 18).

The faithfulness of the Logos as the Man Christ Jesus was rewarded by the Father with glory, honor and immortality—the divine nature.

And this great privilege has been given to an elect "little flock," the Bride class, to become associated with Jesus in the sufferings of this present time and in the glory to follow.

Our Lord Jesus corroborates the Apostle, saying, "As the Father hath life in himself, so he hath given life in himself to whomsoever He will—the Bride class, the overcomers." "more than conquerors."

TASTY MEAT DISHES

RECIPES THAT WILL APPEAL TO ECONOMIC HOUSEWIFE.

Braised Beef Makes Dish That Is Fit for a King—English Wiggle Is Worth Trying — Mutton Sausage—Pressed Veal.

English Wiggle.—One-half pound chopped beef put on in cold water and let come to boil, then chop fine and brown in three tablespoonfuls of butter; one shredded onion; over this pour one can of tomatoes chopped fine; add pepper and salt over tomatoes and bits of butter and two finely rolled crackers. When thoroughly heated through, cover all with freshly broken eggs. Cover and cook slowly till whites and yolks of eggs are set.
Serve on toast.

Braised Beef.—Get from your butcher five pounds of beef cut from the round and in the bottom of your roasting pan place in a row five slices of fat pork. On this slice a medium sliced onion and season with salt and pepper. Now put in the beef, place cover on roasting pan, and roast slowly in a moderately hot oven for two hours. Do not remove cover from pan until the two hours are up. When ready to serve, cut in slices and arrange on a platter; then remove bits of pork from the liquor and make a gravy, using a tablespoonful of flour.
On each slice of meat pour a spoonful of gravy and serve immediately.

You will have a dish fit for a king, and there is no waste, as the manner of roasting makes it sweet, juicy, and tender. It is delicious sliced cold or heated on toast.

Mutton Sausage.—Take one pound of underdone leg of mutton, six ounces of beef suet, one pint of oysters, two anchovies, and some sweet herbs. Chop all these ingredients fine and season with mace, pepper, and salt. Add a quarter of a pound of grated breadcrumbs and two well beaten eggs. Mix well and put it.
Use it by rolling into ball sausage shape and fry. This makes a delicious entree.

Pressed Veal.—Three pounds veal, boiled tender, then ground fine; season with salt and pepper. Save a pint of liquor after the meat has boiled.
Boil eight eggs hard, chop separately.
Dissolve nearly a box gelatin in the hot liquor. Put a layer of veal (one-half of veal) in one-half gallon mold and press down gently, then yellow of eggs, then whites, and lastly another layer of veal; press down again and pour liquor over and set in cold place.
This makes a nice luncheon dish.

Clam Bisque.
Thirty clams, one cupful of milk, and half as much cream, or two cupfuls butter and one of flour, three eggs, a tablespoonful of onion juice, one cupful of boiling water, a pinch of soda in the milk, and one cupful of cracker crumbs.

Chop the clams and put over the fire in the boiling water. Simmer half an hour. Heat milk and cream in another saucepan with the soda and crumbs. Stir in the roux, boil one minute, and pour gradually, beating all the time upon the yolks, previously whipped smooth. Heat in a double boiler for two minutes, or until the water in the outer vessel boils hard, and turn into the tureen. Season the boiling mince of clams with salt, cayenne, and minced parsley, add to the milk in tureen, and cover the surface with the whites of the eggs, beaten to a standing froth.

well, otherwise spoken of in the Scriptures as everlasting life, is not inherent immortality, but an eternal maintenance in life by the Creator, subject to the condition of obedience and right conduct.

In this same sense of the word Adam was immortal, but his immortality was dependent upon his obedience. When he disobeyed, his provision for his sustenance was withdrawn. He was expelled from Eden that the sentence of death might take effect, "dying thou shalt die." Similarly Satan and others of the angels, because of disobedience, will be destroyed hence their immortality was conditional as was that of humanity (Hebrews 12:14).

Life and Immortality

The Scriptures, as we have already indicated, use the word immortality in a more restricted sense than is common in our general usage.

Thus the Scriptures explain the two fold work of Christ: (1) The work for the world, in providing for all the willing and obedient of mankind, everlasting life; (2) the work for the Church, in making possible for the called and obedient of the Bride class, glory, honor and immortality, the divine nature.

The Scriptural expression is that Christ brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel" (1 Tim. the 1, 10). Everlasting life was inherited in the remote past, but not specially stated. The declaration is that the seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head, implying a victory over the Adversary, a release of mankind from the death penalty.

But it was not specific. The promise of God to Abraham, that in his Seed all the families of the earth should be blessed, contained an intimation of a divine provision for the restoration of humanity from death and the present fallen condition, a restitution to eternal life conditions. But there was nothing specific in it. The prophets also gave intimations of coming blessings through a great Messiah, but failed to say that eternal life would be the grand result.
